Good communication is never perfect. However, as it is said, practice makes perfect.

This workshop helps students improve their communication skills. It is a practical, hands-on activity, carried out by students, which will provide them with the necessary abilities to engage in effective communication.

CROSSING CULTURAL BOUNDARIES

6th edition

Coordinators:

Assoc. Prof. PhD Simona Nicoleta Staicu
Assoc. Prof. PhD Iulia Cristina Frînculescu

Studying abroad is an invaluable experience – a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to live in a foreign country (Romania), learn its customs and culture, and adapt to new surroundings.

Being in a new city, surrounded by a new culture (Romanian), and new friends is the perfect way to discover who you really are. By the end of your journey, you will have a deeper understanding not only of yourself but also of the world.

To do so, we invite participants to present cultural topics.
